MRS. EARL FRANKLIN AYERS
the former Miss Sandra Lou Mayberry

Wed In Double-Ring Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Sandra Lou Mayberry to Earl Franklin Ayers took place Saturday evening at 7 o'clock in Wadsworth Tabernacle in Lynchburg.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard M. Mayberry. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl William Ayers, all of Lynchburg.

The Reverend Llewellyn Wade, pastor of the Eternal Baptist Church in Madison Hts., Virginia, officiated the double ring ceremony.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. She presented a pink rosebud to her mother as she approached the alter.

The bride wore a traditional floor length wedding gown of crystal white brocade with Empire bodice of lace with a scalloped neckline and long Bishop sleeves. Her circular shaped chapel train was enhanced with brocade lace. Attached by a pearl crown with white bridal lace was the bride's veil. The gown was designed by the bride and her aunt, Mrs. Alfred Bryant of Appomattox.

She carried a white bridal Bible covered with a spray of white carnations, babies-breath and satin streamers.

Miss Dianne Brooks of Dallas, Texas was the honor attendant. Her floor length gown was fashioned of light pink silk organza, the empire bodice of lace was finished with a Victorian neckline and long pink lace sleeves. She wore a matching pink lace veil. She carried a cascade of dark pink carnations, lily-of-the-valley, and satin streamers.

Other attendants were Miss Deborah Kay Mayberry, sister of the bride, Miss Marilyn Bryant, and Miss Sandra Stanaitis, all of Lynchburg.

Their full floor length gowns were fashioned of dark pink silk organza, the empire bodice was finished with Victorian neckline and long pink lace sleeves. The attendants wore matching pink lace chapel veils. Each attendant carried a cascade of light pink carnations centered by a pink candle and streamers.

Mr. Earl Williams served as bestman for Mr. Ayers. Ushers were Dennis Wade, Howard Payne and Barry Williams, all of Lynchburg.

Miss Karen Denise Mayberry, sister of the bride and Miss Sherry McCauley were flower girls. Their gowns matched the attendants gowns.

Following the ceremony, the parents of the bride and Mrs. Frances Critzer, aunt of the bride, were hosts for a reception at the Seminole Trail Club House.

After a wedding trip, the couple will live in Lynchburg.

Out of town guest included Mr. John Robey and Miss Katherine Geddidig of Washington, D. C. and Mr. and Mrs. James A. Marceron of Falls Church, Va.

Celebrate 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin J. Grishaw of Evergreen (above) were honored on the occasion of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary with a reception held Sunday, Sept. 2 at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Harris, also of Evergreen. Hostesses were Mrs. Harris, Miss Martha Ann Grishaw and Miss Carolyn Grishaw, the three daughters of the honored couple. Helping with the serving were Mrs. Curtis Burnette, Rustburg; Mrs. J. K. Hamilton, Evergreen, Mrs. Thomas Paulette, a sister of Mrs. Grishaw, of Phenix, and Mrs. George Franklin, Appomattox. Guests came between the hours of two and four p.m. and were served wedding cake, punch and mints. A note of interest: Mr. and Mrs. Grishaw were married by the late Reverend Cecil Carter and it was in the Harris home (above), then the Baptist parsonage, that the couple was married twenty-five years ago.

Appo HD Club Meets

The Appomattox Home Demonstration Club met with Miss Annie Alvis as hostess on September 28th.
